

Nick N. Maslov

Nick N. Maslov - was born in St-Peterburg, Russia and went to Moscow. NM finished Moscow Art School at Suricov Academy of Art. After leaving art school he went to Moscow School-Studio at Moscow Art Theatre, and finished it as the stage and costume designer and worked in many famous theatres of Moscow and other cities of Russia, participated in Theatre Festivals (for example, in Kassel International Theatre Festival). NM became a member of the Moscow Union of Artists. He also continued painting and participated in many art exhibitions, such as: - «Artists of the Theatre and the Cinema» - at the Central Hall of Manege; - exhibition of the group of the artists - «agreement №13» at the Central Hall of Artists in Moscow;- Annual Spring exhibition of artists and stage designers of Moscow at Kuznetsky Most exhibition hall; 2013 – annual exhibition of the stage designers by the Union of Theatre Workers; Diploma for the best expositional design of the gallery “Alexandra” at the Annual International Exhibition in New York, USA.

As well as painting, he became involved in film, and worked successfully at MOSFILM-studio and in different independent projects as the production designer. In the post-soviet years in 1992-2012 Nick Maslov successfully worked as art- and creative-director in the design bureaus of Moscow, and this work proved to be an important part of his work. He made the promotional materials for many Russian firms and cooperated with famous Western periodicals published in Russia.

Nick N. Maslov continues to work as the stage, costume, interior, graphic and advertising designer. But he is still engaged in painting, graphic and photo. Now he is making his personal exhibitions of his photo-works, graphics, paintings and independent exhibition projects in the art galleries of Moscow. The works by Nick N. Maslov are in the galleries and private collections of Russia, Germany, Austria and other countries of the Europe.